WORK EXAMPLES

- Through the DoorDash— Excel. In this project, I used Excel to analyze a 2.2k dataset for marketing insights that will increase the customer base and company revenue. I focused on the age range of customers, the total amount spent, the average amount spent, and the average customer use length. The marketing insights provided at the end of the analysis list the demographics of customers that should be focused on for future campaigns.
- World Happiness Report— Tableau. Through in-depth analysis of happiness rankings from 2015 to 2019, I explored correlations between corruption and freedom, as well as freedom and generosity, offering clear insights into the intricate dynamics of these factors through effective data visualization.
- Analyzing Music Artists and Tracks— GitHub. With a strong proficiency in database analysis, I conducted thorough evaluations of tables, retrieving query results to provide comprehensive answers to data inquiries.
- Customer & Order Analytics— GitHub. I skillfully executed database queries to obtain comprehensive insights into January and February sales and product data, successfully addressing multiple inquiries and providing valuable business intelligence.
- Spotify Analytics— GitHub. I utilized data to construct a meticulously organized table and performed multiple queries, extracting pertinent information about the artists and songs for comprehensive analysis and evaluation.
